FIRST READING

A reading from the second book of Kings 4:8-11, 14-16

One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way. She said to her husband, ‘Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God. Let us build him a small room on the roof, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.’ One day when he came, he retired to the upper room and lay down. ‘What can be done for her?’ He asked. Gehazi (his servant) answered, ‘Well, she has no son and her husband in old.’ Elisha said, ‘Call her.’ The servant called her and she stood at the door. ‘This time next year,’ Elisha said ‘you will hold a son in your arms.’

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R/. Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into his death. When we die to sin, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and in that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people. Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light. Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: ‘Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me. Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.

‘Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me.

‘Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet’s reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man because he is a holy man will have a holy man’s reward.

‘If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A
27th / 28th June, 2020

God our Father
Through your Son, Jesus, You reached out to people in every kind of need. Use us in the same way, So that by our words and actions, Others may feel the Power of your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

Today we are faced with the cost of discipleship, but we are also comforted by the promise of the providence of God. Baptism is for us both death and life. Through it we enter into Christ’s death and we die to lives of selfishness and sin. Through it we rise with Christ to a new life freed from everything that previously held us down. As glorious as this new life might be, it requires death to our old ways of living, and this is always difficult. The cost of discipleship cuts right to the core of our beings, it lays bare the very structures of kinship. Baptism recreates us as children of God; through it we are given a new life and born into a new family. The bonds of discipleship are now even stronger than the bonds of blood. Discipleship requires our very lives. As disciples we can no longer put ourselves first. We must be willing to spend ourselves and to be spent, to serve others in the day to day unfolding of life. We may find such commitment very demanding, but that is part of the cost of discipleship. God promises that if we lose our lives in this way, we will really gain them. If we are unselfish in the way we share ourselves with others, we will be enriched through our generosity. If we spend ourselves and are spent in our service of others we will be filled with blessings unimaginable. © Dianne Bergant CSA

LATEST COVID 19 UPDATE: With a sudden rise in COVID cases throughout Victoria the Premier has announced changes to the proposed easing of restrictions that we had been expecting. Now, as of 11:59pm Sunday 21st June 2020, numbers in places of worship will remain at 20 until 12 July 2020 (dependent on trending health concerns and advice). There are further limits to be put in place for gathering in homes and other spaces. We realise this has been a deep disappointment to our community, friends and families, as planning to open our places of worship to higher levels had been welcomed with great joy.

May we keep each other and all those who are meeting first-hand, covered in a prayer of protection, and pray that we may soon be able to gather as a full community once more. To see the Premier’s Statement, https://cam.org.au/Guidance-for-Parishes-COVID-19

1000 WAYS TO LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOUR
Archbishop Peter A Comensoli has encouraged us to get creative with the ways that we reach out to others in our community. At this time of uncertainty and possible social isolation, the people of God in Melbourne and beyond are invited to lead the way in loving and caring for each other and for those vulnerable in our communities (while social distancing). It's a time when each of the baptised should intentionally commit to this affirmative action during the coronavirus pandemic. Some are calling this the ‘Me & You + 2’ response. This simply means: take care of yourself and your loved ones, and one other potentially vulnerable person. Everyone--young, old and in-between has this calling and capacity. Fortunately, our digital age provides a raft of ways to reach out and love our neighbour during the threat of Coronavirus. Here are some suggestions: Make a call; Send a letter; Do the shopping - Get in touch with elderly or vulnerable people in your community and offer help with their shopping. Ensuring they have adequate provisions in this time is one of the most valuable acts of service you can offer, Join or set up a volunteer help group; Shop local - Local business owners are our neighbours too! Fight the hoarding impulse - Over-stockpiling leads to a shortage of essential provisions for more vulnerable communities that don't have the means or opportunity. Buy in moderation, others are also able to meet their needs. These suggestions are aimed at inspiring action. Feel free to expand or adapt it. If you have any more ideas about how to help your local community, please let us know by contacting communications@cam.org.au

A SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR THE INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER will be held this weekend. If you are unable to attend Mass, you can still make an offering via our Parish Website – Should you use the online method, please be sure to include reference to the Holy Father Collection, so that your donation will be allocated correctly. Thank you for your generosity.

FOR PEACE OF SOUL Let nothing disturb you, Let nothing frighten you. All things are passing: God alone is changeless. Patience gains all things, Who has God wants nothing. God alone suffices.
