FIRST READING
A reading from the prophet Zechariah 9:9-10
The Lord says this: ‘Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion! Shout with gladness, daughter of Jerusalem! See now, your king comes to you; he is victorious, he is triumphant, humble and riding on a donkey. He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem; the bow of war will be banished. He will proclaim peace for the nations. His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.’
The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
R/. I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

SECOND READING
A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:9, 11-13
Your interests are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you. So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.
The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 11:25-30
Jesus exclaimed, ‘I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. ‘Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.’
The Gospel of the Lord.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A
4th/ 5th July, 2020
Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday

God of all creation, as we journey together in this Great Southern Land, we pray for healing, forgiveness and unity. Create a path of good will, with justice and compassion. Give us strength to walk together as one. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

FOCUS ON THE READINGS
An old priest gave me a great piece of advice. ‘Never underestimate the burdens people bring with them into the church. Often we have little idea of the difficulties and pain our parishioners will be carrying.’ I have no idea what you have brought with you to Mass today. I can only imagine the anxiety and burden some of you are carrying. Whatever it is, Jesus invites you to let go of it, if only for a while, and be at peace. Now all this ‘come and rest a while’ talk can be very pious and not sound all that in touch with reality. Today’s Gospel, however, it came from the community of the Apostle Matthew and was written in Jerusalem about 45 years after Jesus’ death. We know that this community experienced intense suffering and heavy burdens. They had been expelled from the Synagogue and were being martyred for their faith in Jesus Christ. No wonder they held so strongly to the words, ‘Come to me all you who are weary and heavy burdened and I will give you rest.’ And they found consolation in Jesus’ example, ‘take my yoke upon you and learn from me for I am gentle and humble in heart.’ Since the first century, however, Christianity has been guilty of trying to spiritually wallpaper over some tough realities rather than preaching that God is our companion in facing up to whatever our reality is and dealing with it. Our faith is not about praying away our problems or fears and wishing it were otherwise. Our faith means we have experienced the love of God in Jesus Christ so that we never carry our burdens alone. God is our companion and guide and every Christian community, is called to be the sort of place where we carry each other’s burdens and rest with each other awhile. I don’t underestimate the burdens some of you have walked into this church with today. Whatever burden you may have brought with you, may you know a moment’s rest, the companionship of fellow travellers and the gift of Christ’s peace.

LATEST COVID 19 UPDATE: With a sudden rise in COVID cases throughout Victoria the Premier has announced changes to the proposed easing of restrictions that we had been expecting. Now, as of 11:59pm Sunday 21st June 2020, numbers in places of worship will remain at 20 until 12 July 2020 (dependent on trending health concerns and advice). May we keep each other and all those who are meeting first-hand, covered in a prayer of protection, and pray that we may soon be able to gather as a full community once more. CONGRATULATIONS to Monsignor Greg Bennet on being appointed the 10th Bishop of Sale: Pope Francis has appointed Monsignor Greg Bennet, a priest of the Archdiocese of Melbourne, as the next Bishop of Sale. Mons Bennet will oversee the Catholic diocese that stretches from Melbourne’s outer eastern suburbs, through Gippsland and to the NSW border. The 57-year-old Bishop-elect, who served as Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Melbourne from 2012 to 2019, noted that many in Sale had suffered as a result of recent bushfires. “The diocese has responded with great care, compassion and charity to those who lived through such a traumatic experience and began to recolonise their lives. These efforts have my full support,” he said. In preparing to take on the new ministry Bishop-Elect Bennet said he promised to commit himself to Sale and to make his home amongst God’s people.
