Jesus said to Saint Faustina:

"I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of My mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy."

"The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter." (Diary 699)

“There is nothing that man needs more than Divine Mercy.”

- Pope John Paul II, 7/6/97

“Those sacred wounds in His hands, in His feet and in His side, are an inexhaustible source of faith, hope and love from which each one can draw, especially the souls who thirst the most for Divine Mercy.” - Pope Benedict 3/4/2006

“Remember this well, and we can say it all together: ‘There is no limit to Divine Mercy offered to all!’” - Pope Francis 6/4/2014

How to Prepare for the Feast of Mercy

To observe Divine Mercy Sunday fittingly, we should precede the feast by a nine-day novena of chaplets to the Divine Mercy, beginning on Good Friday (privately said) and:

1. Celebrate the Feast on the first Sunday after Easter;
2. Sincerely repent of all our sins;
3. Place our complete trust in Jesus;
4. Go to Confession on that Sunday or within seven days before or after the Feast;
5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast;
6. Venerate the Image of The Divine Mercy;
7. Be merciful to others, through our actions, words and prayers on their behalf.

* To venerate a sacred image or statue simply means to perform some act or make some gesture of deep religious respect toward it because of the person whom it represents - in this case, our most Merciful Saviour.

“When you approach the Confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul.”

(Diary 699)

“Whoever sincerely says ‘Jesus, I trust in You’, will find comfort in all fears.”

Pope John Paul II, 7/6/97
