

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the Lord while he is still to be found, call to him while he is still near.
Let the wicked man abandon his way,
the evil man his thoughts.
Let him turn back to the Lord who will take pity on him, to our God who is rich in forgiving; for my thoughts are not your thoughts, my ways not your ways – it is the Lord who speaks.

Yes, the heavens are as high above earth
as my ways are above your ways, my thoughts above your thoughts.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R./ The Lord is near to all who call him.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians 1:20-24.27

Christ will be glorified in my body, whether by my life or by my death. Life to me, of course, is Christ, but then death would bring me something more; but then again, if living in this body means doing work which is having good results – I do not know what I should choose.
I am caught in this dilemma: I want to be gone and be with Christ, which would be very much the better, but for me to stay alive in this body is a more urgent need for your sake.

Avoid anything in your everyday lives that would be unworthy of the gospel of Christ.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

*Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our hearts, O Lord,
to listen to the words of your Son.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 20:1-16

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day, and sent them to his vineyard. Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place and said to them, “You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage.” So they went. At about the sixth hour and again at about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same. Then at about the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing round, and he said to them, “Why have you been standing here idle all day?” “Because no one has hired us” they answered. He said to them, “You go into my vineyard too”. In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, “Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first.” So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each. When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each. They took it, but grumbled at the landowner. “The men who came last” they said “have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day’s work in all the heat.” He answered one of them and said, “My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last-comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?” Thus the last will be first, and the first, last.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time- YRA - Year of St Francis

19th/20th September 2026

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY

FOCUS ON THE WORD: Our attention shifts slightly in these last Sundays of Ordinary Time. We turn from concentration on the character and responsibilities of discipleship to reflection on the import of the end of time. As we move toward the close of the liturgical year, we are invited to consider the final coming of Christ and the last judgment. The thought of judgment is enough to strike fear in the hearts of many. We sometimes experience tension between the idea of divine justice, which requires that the good be adequately rewarded and the evil be appropriately punished, and that of the mercy of God, which we hope will be generously extended to us. As seen in the readings for this Sunday, the justice of God does not conform to the standards of human justice. It is incomprehensible, because its foundation is mercy. While we might find consolation in this view of divine judgment when it is directed toward us, our hearts do not always seem to be generous enough to rejoice in the mercy extended to others. It is almost as if we feel that we have been cheated in some way, if God is merciful to others. However, divine mercy can work in us to abolish our pettiness and indignation and replace it with generosity of heart. We are called to conduct ourselves with this kind of generosity, this kind of love, this kind of mercy. © Dianne Bergant CSA

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY - Key Messages

- 1• Social Services Sunday is an opportunity to recognise and thank the staff, volunteers and organisations who support people experiencing disadvantage and marginalisation.
- 2• Catholic social service organisations in Victoria support more than 300,000 Victorians across over 388 sites, drawing on the expertise and commitment of over 7,510 staff and more than 15,000 volunteers.
- 3• Catholic social service organisations accompany people through many different circumstances, including homelessness and housing insecurity, family and domestic violence, disability, poverty, displacement, and challenges experienced by young people and families.

29. Synodality is not uniformity

Different cultures, communities and parishes will live synodality in different ways. Unity does not require sameness.

The synod assembly will be held across the weekend of 4-6 December 2026, more information is available at melbournecatholic.org/synod2026

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN: The Parish of St John the Baptist, and the Archdiocese of Melbourne are committed to the care, wellbeing and protection of children, young people and vulnerable people in our community. May our message be that child protection and the dignity of every person is the responsibility of everyone. You can find out more about the church's work in this area at: www.catholic.org.au/responseandprevention safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

MONDAY IS THE UNITED NATIONS-DESIGNATED INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE.

With ongoing wars in the Middle East, Ukraine and Africa, it is another opportunity to pray for a resolution in these areas. However, peace is not only about the absence of war but is about justice, respect, understanding and hope. Celebrated each year on September 21, people of different cultures and religions globally are asked to reflect on how they can help build a more peaceful world. Everyone, everywhere can do their part for peace. Take one small step for peace every day: Find out more at: <https://www.un.org/en/observances/international-day-peace>

SOCIAL SERVICES SUNDAY Social Services Sunday is observed in the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne on the third Sunday of September. It is an opportunity to give thanks, pray for and stand with the thousands of dedicated staff and volunteers who serve those who are poor, disadvantaged and marginalised in our communities. It also provides us with the opportunity to reflect on what our role might be in this work of service and justice. Watch the video here

ST JOHN'S PARISH SOCIAL LUNCH the SJB Parish Community are coming together for a social gathering on Sunday the 11th of October at 12 PM. Straight after the 10:30 AM Sunday mass. We would like to extend the invite to all the parishioners. Preparations are well underway, and we are inviting any one who could offer a Raffle prize for this day to make a donation to the Parish Office – these donated items will be made up into hampers for the raffle prizes. Maybe you could donate a box of chocolates, or some special biscuits or preserves, or perhaps a craft item that you have made... the options are endless, and all items will be gratefully received. Many thanks everyone!
